About Us:

We are the award-winning student newspaper and voice of Citrus College since 1922. Founded in 1915, Citrus College has the distinction of being the oldest community college in Los Angeles and fifth oldest in the state.

Located in the foothills of the San Gabriel Mountains in Glendora, 25 miles northeast of Los Angeles, the college occupies a 104-acre campus and serves an annual student population of more than 20,000 from the surrounding areas of Azusa, Claremont, Covina, Duarte, San Dimas, and Monrovia.

After 76 years of paper print publication, the Clarion went fully digital in the fall of 2023.
